Harvest Moon 2

Whether you want a moo moo here or a quack quack there, you'll have plenty of fun down on the farm.

All creatures great and small

Now here's something fresh and original you don't see every day on your Game Boy Color, a fab farming sim.

If you've ever fancied mucking out, rearing sheep and doing all the things Old MacDonald is famous for, then this is sure to get you up with the birds and into some wellies.

This fantastically crafted title might not instantly shout fun, but just wait until you get started and you won't wanna put it down.

To get anywhere you'll need to plough those fields and scatter some good seed on the land. So what are you waiting for, Farmer Giles? There's a bloomin' harvest to bring in...

► Old MacDonald's a thing of the past now you've come to town to save the farm. Get sowing!

▲ You'll need to work long hours to help the residents and stop the farm being turned into a theme park.

LOOKS Dripping with colour and detailed lands, Harvest Moon 2 is class. With easy to use menus too, you won't wanna stop being a farmer.

Fairground attraction

A farming sim might not strike you as a must have Game Boy title, but just a few minutes of play will have you hooked.

Your adventure begins down in Flower Bud Village where you come across a meeting between the mayor and an elder of the town.

To make money, the head of the town wants to turn the nearby farmland into a giant theme park and bring in the dollars.

But that's where you step in to help. You've only got three years to turn the situation around and the clock is ticking.

Mayor: why don't we build a theme

▲ The game begins in a small cabin where the Mayor proposes turning the farm into a giant fairground. Oh no!

But that land — that farm —

▲ With the farm in such a sorry state, the local farmer is forced into agreeing to the decision, but wait...

3

▲ ... you've got a grand plan to help save the animals and fields. What a hero!

4

I'll give you 3 years. I'll

▲ You've got three years to turn the situation around. Better get a move on...

Name the day

With three years to save the farm, you'll need to learn fast about planting crops and rearing animals.

Your first step is to choose whether you want to be a boy or girl farmer. Whatever you choose makes no difference, but what does is your birthday.

Every time it comes round you'll be given a tool upgrade to improve your equipment and make you a more efficient worker. What a birthday treat!

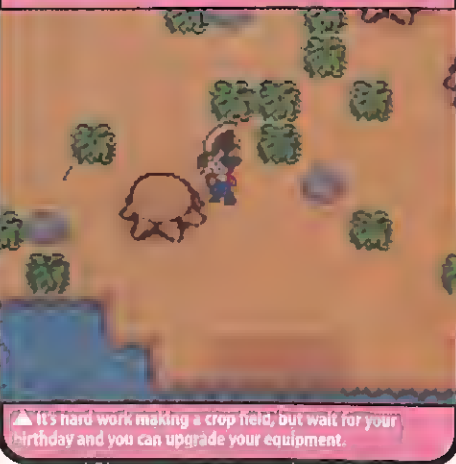

year, the Mayor will only give you money instead of improving some of your tools.

Choose your gender!

► Male Female

▲ Right what's it gonna be, boy or girl? Don't take too long deciding 'cos there's a farm to run!

▲ Up, two, three and back, two, three. You'll need to be trim to be the best farmer in the land.

SOUNDS It's not Old MacDonald which would have been ace. Despite that, the bright, fun tune will keep you company during your day's work.

Village people

Becoming a farmer is hard work you know, so to help you out there are plenty of skilled folk down in the village.

Each one will offer you some advice in maintaining the upkeep of your farm and some even hand you items you can use.

Be sure to keep one eye on the time, though, 'cos the shops only open at certain times of the day...

Three years of hard work will

Ken

The local woodman is a dab hand at making tools and building useful things. Pop into his workshop and he'll give you an estimate.

Well, good luck.

Mary

Mary's giant collection of books display pictures of every bug, fish or flower you catch or grow. Print them out using a Game Boy Printer.

So you're going to run the farm?

Daisy

What a great name for a florist! Drop into her scented shop to buy a variety of seeds from Sage to Geranium and a Watering Can, too.

Be sure to come and eat at Rosie

Rosie

Grub up in the restaurant. Without food and water you won't have the energy to work, so keep checking the stove in your house.

Good things happen when you

Chet

No, it's not Rolf Harris, but in this animal hospital you can buy everything from cows to chickens, as long as you have space in your fields.

Well look what the cat dragged

Doctor

When you feel like you're gonna blow chunks, pop into the clinic for a check up. Check you've fed the animals first or they'll get grumpy.

I bet you do a great job

Bill

One half of twins, he builds the machines for your farm. Many items are quite pricey, so sell loads of crops to get the goodies you need.

Slash and burn

At the start of your mission, the farm is in need of repair and to turn it around you'll need to sort out the mess.

To start getting money in your kitty you'll need to use your tools, from an Axe to Hammer and Hoe, to make the ground fit for crops.

In order to maximise production you'll also have to get the local carpenter to fix the bridge that sits on the stream bed.

Put it back together and you can walk across and start growing crops in plenty of time for harvest.

We'll build a bridge so you

▲ To connect your two crop fields, ask Ken to build a bridge. Watch your dosh though, it's well priced.

2

▲ To keep on top of condition, eat and drink plenty 'cos clearing fields is hard work. Put your back into it!

Day into night

One of the keys to the game is the fact that different things happen during the day and at night.

As the hours tick by, the landscape changes colour from a bright yellow to a dusky red shade when evening draws in.

Watch the clock, 'cos if you need extra provisions the shops are only open during specific times of the day.

If you arrive far too late they will be locked up and you'll have to try again in the morning. D'oh!

1

▲ Wakey, wakey! At the start of the day you'll be able to see everything in the field.

2

▲ As the hours tick by the colour of the fields start to change. It won't stop the rain though.

3

▲ The shops are only open during certain hours of the day, too, so make sure you keep an eye on the clock.

4

▲ Leave it too late and you won't be able to get into any shops. Oh well, better try again tomorrow.

Green fingers

To make more money to buy bigger and better equipment you need to fill your fields with different crop varieties.

By clearing the land you can start planting vegetables and grass for your animals to eat.

In order to make sure your crops don't die, you'll have to keep topping them up with water from your Watering Can.

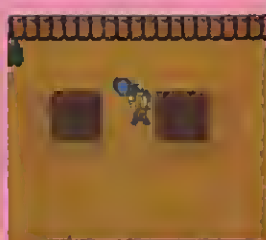

At the end of each day you can leave them for a collector who takes them to market.

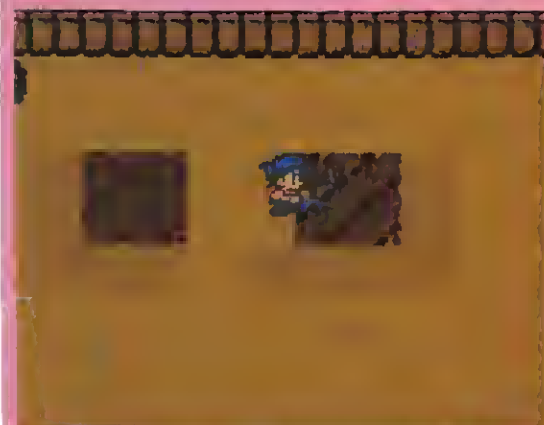

Once you've cleared the land and put up your hoe and start to till the ground, it's back breaking toil!

When the soil appears you can sow your bag of seed. Charlie Dimmock would be proud.

To keep your crops growing up big and strong, grab your Watering Can and give them a drink.

With one patch of veggies on the go, get started on more areas.

Swot up

To keep an eye on what happens each season there's a schedule you can activate on your menu screen.

In addition there's a bulletin board in the town square which you must read every so often for some very useful advice.

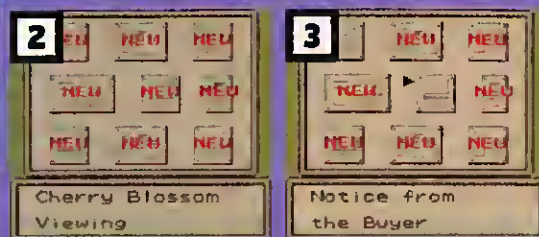

Just pick the note you want to read and you'll be given more clues to improve your farm and details of new events.

The information is always changing, so keep revisiting the board and check out what's new in town.

03 Wed AM11
Sickle

In the north west corner of the town square is the bulletin board.

This board is packed with local information. Make sure you read it 'cos it's critical to your success.

Read every notice and keep checking the board to see if there are any new tidbits of information.

GAME LENGTH The three years will rush by! There's so much to down on the farm.

Collect the lot

Harvest Moon 2 is packed with bugs and fish to collect during your time on the farm, but that's only the half of it.

Later this year you'll be able to link up with Legend of the River King 2 to transfer items you've managed to find in both games.

Those intent on being a top dog farmer will also have to use this option to collect every insect and fish in the game. Good luck!

The forthcoming Legend of the River King 2 links up with Harvest Moon 2 for some trading.

Using the computer in the Library you can swap insects and fish. Cool, or what?

Aliens Thanatos Encounter

By THQ Price £24.99 Game Link X
Infra Red X Game Boy X Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Far away among the stars, a crew of marines receive a distress signal from the Thanatos. They find it's deserted and that aliens are running amok. It's your mission to stay alive and solve the mystery.

We think It's been a while in the making and unfortunately it's not quite as good as we hoped. This is too tough from the very first level, and blasting aliens doesn't feel very convincing at all. This is a real waste of your hard earned cash.

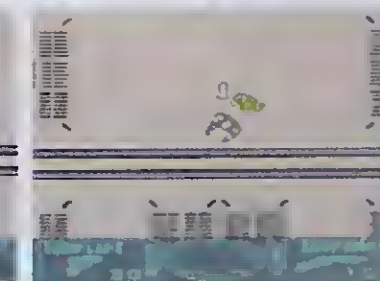

Aliens of all shapes and sizes roam the spooky corridors of the Thanatos. Check out this ugly mutha! Better get your weapon loaded and ready to fire.

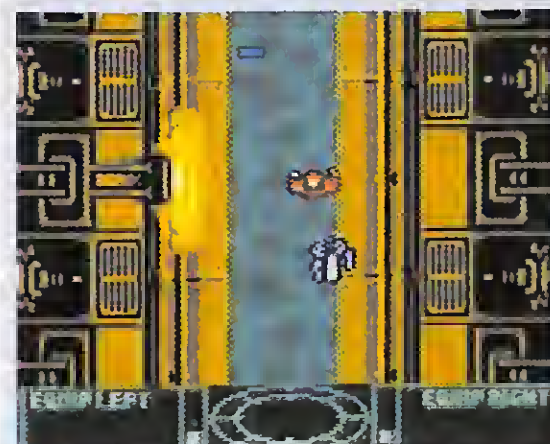

Every time an alien takes a bite you'll change colour. Looks like he's taking some massive chunks out of you! Retreat or it's Game Over.

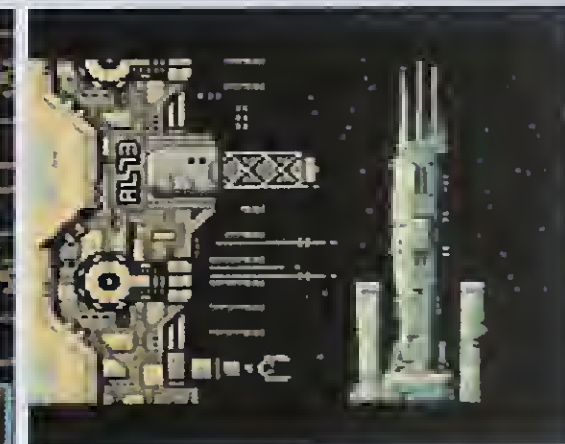

Search every nook and cranny of the ship 'cos you're sure to find some useful items lurking in the corners, from health kits to extra ammo.

Hidden throughout each stage are some troops who will give you goodies for your inventory if you approach them.

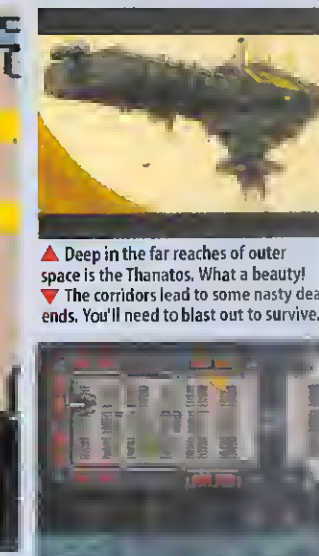

In the middle of the screen is a motion tracker, letting you keep an eye on what's around. Better leg it 'cos those beasties can smell blood a mile away.

You've received a distress signal from this massive space vessel. You'd better get on board and start kicking some alien butt.

There are five marines to choose from and each has their own speed and stamina levels. Pick wisely!

Deep in the far reaches of outer space is the Thanatos. What a beauty! The corridors lead to some nasty dead ends. You'll need to blast out to survive.

Blade

By Activision Price £24.99 Game Link ✗
Infra Red ✗ Game Boy ✗ Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Forget the garlic and the wooden stakes, vampires have now got seriously deadly. Using Blade's sword and martial arts skills you've gotta destroy the army of blood sucking fiends with the help of Whisper.

We think This is an action packed, entertaining adventure. A top range of moves push Blade one step above the normal run of the mill titles. So if you want a game with a plenty of bite, make sure this is your next victim.

▶ The first level gives you the chance to blast baddies far off in the distance or close up. Just keep your finger on the trigger and take aim.
▼ As you move across each fun packed level, the action stops for some serious scraps. Throw the vicious looking Glave and it will silently slice through the air and cut anything that stands in its way.

▲ That's it! Kick that nasty troll straight in the face. Make sure you watch out for enemy blood suckers during the boss battles, 'cos they mean to do some damage.

▲ Make those mini bosses pay with a succession of slashes from your sword. During fights you can grab the enemy by the scruff of the neck and stab them hard. Ouch!

Antz Racing

By Electronic Arts Price £24.99 Game Link ✗
Infra Red ✗ Game Boy ✗ Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about The stars of Antz, Z and Princess Bala are back in a sparkling new adventure that'll give the Wacky Races crew a run for their money. Zip through the forest to collect the 10 Insectopia map pieces.

We think This is loads more enjoyable than Flik's ant adventure on Game Boy, thanks to loads of high speed malarkey and clever graphics. Our one small gripe is the slightly jerky scrolling when cornering.

▲ There are loads of crazy vehicles, from a spinach leaf to a tin can.

▲ Play a quick race and the type of circuit will depend on the season.

▲ If your damage meter gets into the red, your machine will cough and splutter to a stop.

▲ Drive over the icons for some useful power ups and use them to knock your rivals off the road.

What it's about Sherwood Forest's finest man in tights has joined King Richard on a crusade, but gets imprisoned. Help the best arch man in Nottingham to escape and get back to his lovely fiancée, Maid Marian.

We think Robin Hood's adventure will certainly turn you into merry men. Busting with plenty of bow 'n' arrow action and you'll really need to be on your toes to stay alive. Go on, splash your cash on this.

▲ Get out of the way! If you're hit by three arrows you won't be seeing Maid Marian again.

▲ The Ottoman prison is a maze of rooms and corridors, with guards wandering all over the place.

▲ Don't go near the cracks in the floor or Robin will fall to his doom.

▲ Hit B and Robin can strafe enemy fire. Try and catch me!

Infra Red ✗ Game Boy ✗ Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about The latest offering from the house of the mouse is set in a mountain kingdom. Help Emperor Kuzco, who has been turned into a llama and stop nasty Yzma with the help of Pacha the peasant.

We think Yet another cartoon platformer falls foul of nauseating graphics and non-existent gameplay. This game is lacking in new ideas, and unfortunately it's worse than a slobbery kiss from your Granny.

▲ To turn the Emperor back into a human, Kuzco headbutts animal baddies who stand in his path.

▲ Start collecting the scrolls and you can learn some helpful new moves to aid you in your quest.

▲ Be ready to move! Locals love throwing objects from windows.

▲ Apart from collecting items there's not much to this bore fest.

Lego Racers

By Lego Media Price £24.99 Game Link ✓
Infra Red ✗ Game Boy ✗ Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Lego never fails to age and now it's back on your handheld in this hot rod racer. Build your motor, select your stage and blast your opponents off the track. Go head to head against a mate, too.

We think Jaw clenching speeds are one thing, but the behind the car view is getting a little tedious. Combining power ups to improve weapons is something new but, other than that, it feels like we've been here before.

▲ Show Captain Redbeard a thing or two on the track and wipe that smirk from his face.

▲ You'll experience plenty of crashes 'n' smashes with your Lego rivals. Ram them off the track!

▲ There are missiles aplenty to fire up their exhaust pipe.

▲ Use Lego bricks to make weapons and turn rivals into mincemeat.

Player Manager 2001

Infra Red ✗ Game Boy ✗ Game Boy Color ✓

What it's about Can you compete with the best gaffers in the high pressure world of footy management? Make inspired transfers, find the superstars of tomorrow and, above all, win matches to take you to the top.

We think For a start, this is going to rouse your suspicions when you hear that teams like The Villa, Durham and Harrogate have made it in as teams. With made up player names as well, give this a red card.

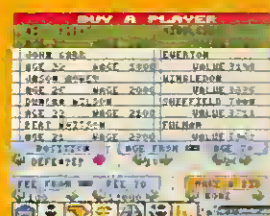

▲ Each match is text based and it's hard to keep up with the pace. Poor old Liverpool are three down.

▲ There's no Robbie Fowler in this Liverpool side. More like Pat Green and Greg Clark, whoever they are.

▲ If you don't win you'll get a ticking off from the chairman.

▲ Jam packed with stats, but this footy sim isn't realistic at all.

What it's about The babies are blasting back onto your portable pal. Collect tickets by winning loads of sideshow games and play with the likes of Tommy, Chuckie and new character Kimi. Ah... they're so cute!

We think Don't be fooled by the name, Nintendoids! Rugrats in Paris is a shameful game with basic graphics and only the odd fun sideshow or two. Other than that there's very little else to keep you occupied.

▲ Mole bashing is fun, but only for a few minutes. Use the Reptar mallet to knock a few on the head.

▲ Take control of red haired Chuckie in the fairground and find your way out of this maze.

▲ Throw balls at sumo wrestlers and win points for each hit.

▲ Take to the air and photograph the famous sights from your plane.

Tony Hawk's Pro Skater 2

FIRST EVER TIPS!

Tony Hawk gets yet another skating game bearing his name. Will the world ever tire of this grinding super dude? The answer seems to be no and, for those of you beavering away at this skateboarding epic, here are some tasty codes...

▲ Enter VITMB8888BVV at the Password screen to earn $50,000 for Tony without even having to get on your skateboard. This does not complete any objectives but it does make you rich beyond your wildest dreams.

▲ To unlock all the boards and levels, enter B5BLPTG888BVV at the Password screen. This also unlocks some of Tony's objectives without you doing the hard work.

▲ To open all the parks and get the super cool Falcon board, just enter VTPMPS8888BVV at the Password screen. Now you can skate in any park you like on a really fast board.

▲ Type in CZWWVWFMKCVB to unlock the brilliant Football and Shadow boards for Bob Burnquist. You'll also get $2,750 to spend. Now that can't be bad, can it?

▲ To unlock all three of Bob Burnquist's boards, punch in CJFBV3KTKC2B. This also unlocks the Bullring and completes some of the game's toughest objectives.

Perfect Dark

More mental mini games

Perfect Dark on Game Boy Color is jam packed with secret features, including a whole host of hidden mini games you can unlock for your gaming pleasure.

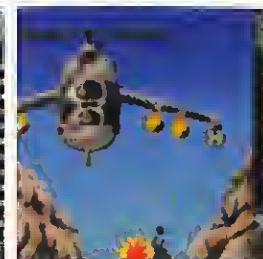

Unfortunately, you do have to earn them first. But the good news is that if you then complete these mini games, you'll unlock cool new multiplayer features.

◀ Complete the Jungle level to unlock the River Crossing mini game. Then complete the River Crossing mini game from the Extras menu to access the Football Pitch in the game's multiplayer mode.

▲ Once the Jungle level is completed, you will also be able to access the Jungle Chase mini game from the Extras menu. This one is really good fun. You've got the added incentive to beat it 'cos this will unlock the Alien Air Hockey table in multiplayer mode.

▲ Beating the Jungle level has other advantages. Once you've completed it you'll be able to play the Hind Attack mini game. Beat this in turn and you'll be able to access the Pac Man Defence map in the game's multiplayer mode. Get playing, secret agents.

▲ Completing the Factory level of Perfect Dark unlocks the Sniper Mode mini game. If you beat this you will unlock Air Hockey in multiplayer mode.

Buffy the Vampire Slayer

FIRST EVER TIPS!

Ahh, Buffy. She's so gorgeous, isn't she? And now she's appearing in her very own game for Game Boy Color! We know that loads of you are Buffy fans, so we've got some awesome tips for all you would be vampire slayers out there. You guys should be well pleased with these level passwords 'cos they mean that you don't have to play through the whole game. Don't say we never give you anything!

▲ To unlock level one, enter 3NKFZB at the load screen. To access level two without playing through the first one, input 9MD1WV at the load screen. Pretty clever, huh?

▲ To enter the fourth level you should type in SBVPL2 at the load screen. Now go out and slay some vampires and help save the world again. All in a day's work.

▲ To get onto level five, just type in 9D6FOS at the load screen. Or if you want to start playing on the mega tough level six simply input TSCN84 in the same place. ◀ For level seven, enter CSJTQZ and to reach the game's final level you should enter BNPXZ9 at the load screen. To complete the game, just beat this level and you're done.

Inspector Gadget

FIRST EVER TIPS!

This crazy platformer is one of the barmiest games out there. Luckily for you we have a selection of cool passwords to help you through this nutty expedition. Check out this little lot...

▲ At the Password screen, type in FH2KBH to get to the second level, also called Reservoirs. Now you'll have to fight lots of these mad robot dogs.

▲ To get to Crater, the game's third world, type in FMIPQM at the Password screen. Then you'll have to bash up these weird flying rodents.

▲ The fourth world is full of puzzles only Penny can see. If you want to take her there, type in FRVTLR as a password and you'll enter the Vats.

▲ To access the fifth world, enter FWQZ!7 at the Password screen. You'll need to use all your gadget skills to get through Escape Well!

Donkey Kong Country

Monkey magic bonuses

Want another tip for this manic monkey platformer? Your prayers are answered...

► If you can get a score of 81% by doing all the bonus levels and getting Candy's Coins, play the game in Hard mode. Then turn off all the Donkey Kong barrels in the options section so that you can raise your rating.

Official Nintendo Top 5 Tips

Check out the best tips for the best sellers on Game Boy Color, this month. Pokémon still rules, it seems!

Pokémon Yellow

For easy Experience Points, put a weak Pokémon first in your team and then battle a powerful enemy. Switch to a strong Pokémon and win to share the Points!

Trading Card

If you win the card you want, battle that rival again as they often give out the same Types. That way you can build up copies of cards you want.

Mario Golf

To turn your player into an ace left hander, just hit SELECT before you choose your player. Once done, you can whack away using your left handed golfer.

Pokémon Pinball

An easy way to catch a Pokémon is to hit Shellder or Voltorb's shadow when they appear. Then you just hold down A and B to capture the critter. Easy, huh?

Spiderman

To skip to the climactic encounter with Or Octopus, you can enter a code! From the main menu, go to Continue and enter 58KR6 to start the end level.
